TESTIMONY

In January 1982 I asked ministers of The Foundation Faith of God to pray for Frank Tranter, and he was placed on the Circle of Power prayer list. He had cancer in both lungs and a hernia. He had three separate major operations over a two month period. I just learned that he has completely recovered and the lung cancer is gone. Frank is a corporate pilot, has passed his physical and is flying again. With the odds against his being able to fly having been so great, his complete recovery and return to his profession is truly another example of God's healing power.

MORE NEWS

Hearings have recently been being held in Congress concerning HR 556, the Research Modernization Act. If it becomes law it will enormously reduce the number of animals used in laboratory experiments and, thereby, the pain and suffering of countless innocent creatures. We, therefore, urge you strongly to make passage of this bill a top priority prayer project and, further, to write Rep. Doug Walgren (chairman of the subcommittee) and Rep. Edwin Forsythe (a member of the subcommittee) urging them to seek swift passage of the bill. You can address them both at, House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515.

PROGRAMS

THE HEALING MINISTRY

The Foundation Faith of God is a Healing Ministry in the fullest sense of the term. The Lord blesses this work with many remarkable healings of body, mind and spirit.

We reach out to those who are institutionalized and bedridden with the healing love of Jesus Christ, and through our prayer fellowship, the Circle of Power, to people all over the world.

THE PRISON MINISTRY

Our work focuses on the importance of each person undergoing a profound personal change, by receiving Christ, so that, upon release, he or she does not simply return to a self-destructive lifestyle. Our current programs include counseling in Georgia's death row and at Atlanta's Federal Penitentiary, and weekly Prayer Meetings at Atlanta Women's Transitional Center (a half-way house).

ANIMAL ACTION

When God gave mankind dominion over the earth and its creatures He did not have in mind the abuse and abandonment of His creatures, nor their torture in scientific experiments. Nevertheless these things happen on a vast scale. We, therefore, give a very high priority to working against such abuse wherever we can, including the promotion of legislation.

EASTER

Rev. Charity Benedicte

". . . I am the resurrection and the life. He who believes in me will live, even though he dies; and whoever lives and believes in me will never die . . ."

John 11:25

Easter is probably the most important religious festival in a Christian's life. During Easter we remember the event which set Christ apart from all other religious leaders, His conquest of death. It is illustrated and reported in detail in all the gospels.

And yet, if we trace Jesus' life right up until this climax, we cannot help but be aware that His whole life in earthly form was a constant "conquest of death."

"Death," as He refers to it is that state under which all mankind has been ever since we were cast out of the Garden of Eden. God did not say to Adam, "If you eat of the fruit of the tree of the knowledge of good and evil, I will be angry," nor even, "You will feel pain." He said, "You will surely die." And "death" is the state we are all in. Away from God we are "dead," with all that implies. It means we are subject to all the negativity of the world, the flesh and the devil!

But Jesus Christ came to show us the way out of the trap. Throughout the gospels in incident after marvellous incident He shows us how to conquer death.

He never says, "Arise and go away and think a great deal about all the terrible sins you have committed!" In the parables, in the healing miracles, and in the way He led His life He was constantly defeating evil, whether it was physical, emotional or spiritual. He showed us, and shows us now, God's compassion and forgiveness to those who reach toward Him. He shows us that with Him we can "sin no more." To all of us who turn to Him he says, "Go, and sin no more," that we may rejoice and praise God and show forth His glory.

May we truly be examples of those who believe on Him at this resurrection time.

NEWS FROM GHANA

Sister Grace writes, "By the great power of the Almighty God all your brothers and sisters are safe and sound, the troubled seas are fairly calm." Her letter was the first detailed news we had received since a military coup at the end of 1981. Praise God for the news, and please look for a fuller report next issue.

ANIMAL ACTION

April 24th is World Day for Laboratory Animals. We will be marking this with a special service on Sunday, April 25th at 1PM, led by Rev. John Christopher. We trust you will be able to attend and lend your support.

A SPECIAL WEDDING

March 20th marked a very special wedding. Disciples Ken Maxfield and Jennifer Steele, two longtime friends and supporters, tied the knot at a ceremony at Faith Center attended by family and friends. They shortly move to Dallas, where they will be close to our center there. Our prayers go with them in their new life.

Rev. Raphael de Peyer conducts the wedding ceremony for Disciples Ken Maxfield and Jennifer Steele.

WORKSHOPS

We were blessed recently with two inspiring, well-attended workshops. The first, led by Rev. Faith Maloney, visiting from Pennsylvania, concerned the use of color in spiritual work. The second, conducted by Rev. Raphael de Peyer and called "Speaking With The Spirit," was designed to help activate the power and guidance of the Holy Spirit in our lives. Praise God for the presence of His Holy Spirit in both workshops, and for the joy of Rev. Faith's visit with us.

MEDIA NOTES

Rev. Raphael de Peyer appeared recently with Cody Hampton on WRNG, Atlanta's well-known RING RADIO, and taped a TV show for Atlanta Interfaith Broadcasters. We thank the Lord for these opportunities to spread His message.

BIRMINGHAM OUTREACH

Revs. Raphael de Peyer and Jana Bernadette will visit Birmingham, April 23-25. Included will be media, meetings, and visiting with individuals for counsel and healing prayers.
